Helping you with redundancy and training to get back to work

Aimed at Employees

Building Britain

CITB-ConstructionSkills, CIC and CITB Northern Ireland are working as ConstructionSkills, the Sector Skills Council for Construction. (CITB-ConstructionSkills registered charity number 264289)

CMI-1244 (09/09)

Are you facing redundancy?

If you are a construction employee, who is about to be made redundant or has been made redundant, we, at ConstructionSkills, can help.

Whether you have been given notice of redundancy or been made redundant, in the last three months, and are in receipt of a formal redundancy letter, get in touch with us to help you get back to work.

To be eligible you must be aged 18 or over, live or work/have been working in Nottinghamshire, Leicestershire or Northamptonshire and are/have been directly employed by a company.

Sub-contractors, agency workers and temps are excluded.

Fully funded, flexible support and training

We are the Sector Skills Council for Construction and are offering a new, fully funded, flexible Response to Redundancy programme of support and construction training to help you find new employment.

Our Company Development Advisers work with you to identify your training and development needs. The programme of support is free*, and includes:

- Information, Advice and Guidance
- Skills Assessment
- Training Plan
- Help with CV, Job Applications and Interview Techniques
- Construction Training
- CSCS Advice

* Subject to terms and conditions

Instructors with in-depth industry experience

Our advisers operate in your region and liaise with a wide range of local businesses on a day-to-day basis, which could help you to identify opportunities in your area.

The training and support given will be driven by your needs. ConstructionSkills offers a seamless provision of training, through accredited local providers and our own highly recognised National Construction College, which has a team of qualified instructors with in-depth industry experience.

Programmes are generally part-time, working around benefit regulations, your job seeking activities, as well as your personal circumstances.
