Speaker (2.30 pm)

Charles Meynell, Senior Advisor at Sustainable Construction iNet

The Sustainable Construction iNet has been in existence since 2008 and has helped over 1000 businesses in the East Midlands with innovation projects, business advice and facilitating networking contacts. Based at the iCon Environment Innovation Centre, the team of Innovation Advisors work across the East Midlands providing support and advice to businesses with an idea or prototype for a new sustainable product or service. The Sustainable Construction iNet has access to funding to help qualifying SMEs develop ideas, the sector knowledge and specialist contacts.

Take a look at the case studies at <http://www.construction-inet.org.uk/>

Charles has considerable experience in the construction sector and can help innovative SMEs to commercialise their ideas and bring their products and services to market.
